Tuart Hill

Do you have an eye for quality?

With the other two sold the owner has agreed to let me sell the final one after some persuasion. This group of three brand new 3brm 2bth villas all have their own street frontage and really do make a statement in style.

If you are fed up with tiny villas then the fact we are offering 185sqm building inclusive of garage or 149sqm of internal living space may please you.

Impressive beyond others on the market is the words on everyone's lips that's been through them. With Caesar Stone bench tops, solid timber flooring and a build quality that others aspire to but never quite reach I can see why.

Intelligently designed with their own street frontage you will have all the benefits of separate titles and no common ground without the huge gardens to maintain. The quality will be obvious at first glance.

Within walking distance of Main street cafe strip, local deli and royal street bus services.
