225 Alexander Drive, Dianella

A renovated home in a nice suburb at this...

This renovated three bedroom home directly across Alexander Drive to the light street reserve and bushland is home currently to great tenants on a lease until January next year.

With a new kitchen, bathroom, flooring and window treatments your new home will be the best you will see at this price.

Out back you have two rooms that are under the main roof which have their own entrance and sit completely separate from the rest of the house.

This could work perfectly as a teenage retreat or offices if you want to work from home.

All sitting on a full sized 730sqm block fully reticulated and cared for by A class tenants who love the house, the area and want to stay as long as they can.
