Convenience of a townhouse, privacy of a street...

This three bedroom two bathroom townhouse is part of a street front development where each home delivers independence and privacy.

Serving up generous portions of lounge, family and dining with bedrooms that welcome queen sized beds this home warmly embraces those who value space.

Well built by Master Builders with a reputation for quality you can be sure that this is going to be a move that all your friends and family will be impressed by.

Set on top of the hill in a quiet well maintained street with sweeping views of the hills and within a very short walk of transport, medical and shopping you will see why the tenants who are paying $620 per week are very keen to stay beyond their lease that expires in June 2013
