Get ready to drop your bags and enjoy the fantastic lifestyle this easy-care two-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment brings. This top floor apartment offers incredible value and excellent links to just about anywhere in the metropolitan area from the nearby arterial roads.

Stylish throughout, this spacious property features modern décor and generous open-plan living and dining flowing out to a roomy and covered balcony. The slick kitchen runs along one wall of the living area, leaving plenty of open space, which lends itself to year-round entertaining.

The second bedroom would also make an incredible home office or study, where you can work in peace without any noisy distractions.

Always been owner occupied but this could be an incredible investment opportunity too or perfect for someone with a busy lifestyle looking for a low-maintenance property to move in. Given the proximity to Edith Cowan University and public transport, this is an ideal option for students. Situated in a well-maintained complex, this apartment is also a fantastic opportunity for a first home buyer eager to dip their toe into the property market. With
