4 Fedders St, Morley

Home home cancelled, property under offer before home open

First home buyers and investors looking for an astute property purchase in an established area need look no further!

This c.1960 three-bedroom street-front home in the heart of Morley is well-presented and close to fantastic local amenities. The bathroom and kitchen have been upgraded with new cabinets and stone bench-tops, and laminate timber flooring makes cleaning easy and provides a warm aesthetic.

The north-facing living room receives abundant natural light, and ducted evaporative air conditioning will keep you lovely and cool in the warmer months. You'll love the low water bills from having minimal front and rear gardens!

There's a double carport at the front of the home and a spacious domed pergola to the rear - a sheltered space for kids and pets and perfect for year-round entertaining. There's also a good-sized garden shed for your bikes and tool storage.

Walking distance to several local parks, this ideal starter home is also metres from bus transport on Crimea Street and well located to Hampton Park Primary School, Westfield Galleria and Tonkin Highway entries.
