Dreaming of a Coastal Lifestyle?

Living close to the beach seems like an unattainable dream for many, but this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home could fulfil the fantasy – if you're quick. Endless silky white sands, azure water and picture-perfect beaches are just five minutes away from this spacious family home.

There's no need to compromise on space either on this 509sqm block with 159sqm of living space, including two spacious living areas and a large backyard.
