4 Ely Place, Clarkson

Affordable & Contemporary Coastal Living

This three-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers the ultimate low-maintenance lifestyle perfect for first-home buyers, downsizers, small families and professionals. Investors will recognise the immediate appeal of this beautifully presented property given the affordable price tag and proximity to the coast - a drawcard for anyone craving a coastal lifestyle. Featuring spacious open-plan living and dining, a well-equipped kitchen at the heart of the home and a study that could function as a second living space, this property offers plenty of space for living, relaxing and entertaining. The light and airy neutral décor with easy-care tiles in the living areas and timber look flooring in the bedrooms presents the option of a move-in ready property you can enjoy from the moment you unpack.

You'll love alfresco dining within the paved courtyard, and with minimal gardening, you'll have plenty of time to enjoy all the charms of this coastal suburb, including kilometres of pristine coastline and trails, Clayton's and Quinns beaches, The Marina Mindarie and Neerabup Nature Reserve. Surrounded by beautiful parks, you're within walking distance of Homestead Park and Somerly Primary School. You also have a range of nearby schools, such as St Andrew's Catholic Primary School, Clarkson Community High School and Clarkson Primary School. Ocean Keys Shopping Centre, Clarkson Shopping Centre, bus routes, Clarkson Train Station and easy access to arterial roads, including Marmion Avenue and Mitchell Freeway are also conveniently nearby.

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in the Somerly Estate, you'll need to move fast
