Kingsley

Trying desperately to get into Kingsley ?

This retro style home may provide your ticket to a very bright future. Perfect as a starter home with four bedrooms your new home has been completely restored whilst still making room for you to place your own individual stamp over time in the kitchen and bathroom.

Enjoy sitting together around the fireplace with a glass of port watching dancing flames and let the warmth soak through to your soul on those nights where time in is a far more romantic way to spend the evening.

With a retro stone feature wall nestling behind a secure double door entry this home lives and breathes the character of its era making a statement of individuality that will surely be a conversation starter for all those who visit.

With two generous living areas and 4 large bedrooms there is plenty of space to raise a young family and still have a study if you need a quiet space to reflect.

Located in a quiet cul-de-sac near lake Goollelal with its peaceful nature-walks, this is the perfect place for those who like to clear their heads with a relaxing walk or a scenic bike ride.
