21 Blossomwood Road, Girrawheen

A Modern Home Set Inside The Heart of Girrawheen

Surrounded by parks and schools a stroll away, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom property epitomises low-maintenance living.

The compact 213sqm green title block makes clever use of the floorplan. With two bedrooms at the front of the home in equal size, alongside a family bathroom with a bathtub, they offer separation from the primary bedroom conveniently situated next to the living room.

Spacious open-plan living and dining leads to a private and fully enclosed courtyard, creating a zone for relaxation and entertaining, further enhanced by a modern kitchen and plenty of space for a BBQ. Featuring artificial turf and a paved patio, this easy-care outdoor space extends your living room by bringing the outdoors in, which will be particularly appealing as the warmer weather approaches.

Contemporary in design and built in 2020, there's very little you will want to change with the neutral décor of crisp white walls and timber flooring in the living areas. Combined with the easy-care gardens, this stylish home offers a low-maintenance lifestyle perfect for busy families, couples, downsizers and first-home buyers. Roller shutters on many windows make this a secure option for FIFO workers seeking a lock 'n leave property. Since this is move-in ready and has broad appeal, investors won't be able to resist the opportunity to build on their property portfolio.

You're within walking distance of several parks and schools, including Emmanuel Christian Community School and Girrawheen Senior High School, plus you're only a short distance from Hudson Park Primary School and John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School. Girrawheen benefits from many
