Tuart Hill

At a never to be repeated price....

At this price you will never see so much house again and its largely because the convenient location comes with the mis-conception it will be noisy. So whats the catch, bedrooms are on the smaller side however that is more than made up with 2 very generous living areas.

After all I've never met a person that has moved because their bedrooms are too small. I frequently meet them complaining about not enough living space so with the living areas in this one you are going to get you will be more than impressed and certainly won't be in a hurry to move.

Even more reasons to rub your hands together in glee is that you will get solid glistening timber floors not the fake stuff you see so often.

The kitchen will please those that like to cook up and entertain a storm with bench space that's up to the task.

Located directly across the road from DR 7 Medical centre with the bus stopping right outside the renovated front duplex that completes the pair you
