Luxury apartment without the concrete jungle.

Why own a tiny apartment in a very large concrete jungle when you can own a spacious 2brm (both bedrooms easily host queen sized beds) 2bth boutique apartment in a small development of only 8.

Completed last year to a standard that others aspire to but never quite reach with an uncommon depth of thought to the overall design you will see why others rushed to buy them last time.

The attention to detail is evident from the moment you arrive out front with their striking design, quality of fittings (stone benchtops) and workmanship that demonstrate class without the price tag.

The courtyard and alfresco area make this apartment feel more like a home beckoning those that are into privacy, security and all the finer things.

Only a short walk from the new Hospital and university the location will impress equally as much as the apartment itself. Call now 0413833332
