Apply your trade and skill to finish this home...

This rectangular 270sqm cottage block has the ground floor and second storey slab completed.

All you need to do is finish the top and decorate and you'll have an awesome home and the developer profit will be yours.

This is the rarest of opportunities I've encountered and is easily the most exciting if you are the sort of person who's happy to apply their skills.

Full plans are available depending on how discussions progress, ask me more about those.
