Ballajura

Brimming with 70's character in North Ballajura.

That may seem like an unusual statement however there was a period in late 70's where vaulted timber lined ceilings were in the finer homes.

This three bedroom home is spectacular in its originality providing room to improve if that's how you roll. The kitchen whilst original is massive and shares an open plan family and dining space with those vaulted timber lined ceilings we talked about earlier.

There's a sun room north facing almost reminiscent of what could be called a conservatory that also comes off the family room breathing life into a space that just feels great.

At the end of cul-de-sac within walking distance of beautiful park with kids playground.
