Tuart Hill

Do you have designer taste in new homes?

The waiting is finally over. This brand new spacious villa will impress even more in real life.

With Caesar Stone bench tops, solid timber flooring and a build quality that others aspire to but never quite reach.

With walk in pantry, loads of extra cupboards and bench space these kitchens are as practical as they are beautiful.

Intelligently designed with own street frontage you will have all the benefits of separate titles and no common ground without the huge gardens to maintain.

Call during the week for an after hours viewing (subject to appointment availability) if you don't want to be bowled over in the weekend rush.

Either one of the three may be selected however current instructions are to only sell one. The standard has definitely been set in quality of workmanship, viewing is an absolute must.

Within walking distance of Main street cafe strip, local deli and royal street bus services.
