

Mount Lawley

Brimming with character and bursting with...

This 3 brm character home has been extended maintaining the integrity of this original circa 1920's home with ceilings that touch the sky yet boasting the relevance of today with a kitchen that smashes it in style and function.

Outdoors on this 270sqm survey front strata block not an inch has been wasted with cedar lined and decked alfresco that invites you outside at first and every glance.

Your main bedroom couldn't be better equipped in terms of storage with a walk-in robe that more resembles a dressing room. The second room reminds you of a period past with cast iron fire place as a centre-piece of a generously proportioned room.

Leave the cars parked behind automatic security gates and walk to The Queens, Must wine bar or just grab a coffee and heavenly donut from Mary street Cafe. All this close enough to walk to but far enough to not crowd your peace and quiet when its called for.
