The kitchen has been fitted with Caesarstone bench tops that are highlighted with stainless steel appliances. Ample storage is provided by the installation of the overhead cupboards. A clever choice of wall unit that incorporates more storage space without encroaching onto the living area with more storage space created with cupboards hung to the eastern wall.

The bathroom has the touch of real class. Floor to ceiling tiles that are finished with a strip of stone, which provides highlights of sophistication without being over bearing. Of course the wall tiles blend seamlessly with the floor tiles. The flooring from the kitchen onto the living area is finished with NSW Blackbutt whilst the bedroom is finished with plush pile carpet. The bedroom is also fitted with ample storage space, with beautifully finished his/her wardrobe, with floor to ceiling mirrored doors.

This apartment is located at the end of the building giving the provision of windows to the living area and kitchen allowing plenty of natural lighting that further enhances the feeling of space and with the reverse cycle air conditioning fitted to the living area enjoyment of this apartment is
